

Speed of Life Term Sales Script

Hello [Your Client's Name],

I'm sure you've heard you can get life insurance coverage without taking a medical exam. These products usually take a couple of weeks to issue, and it's going to be more expensive than life insurance coverage that requires you to take a medical exam. Then, there are the most affordable life insurance coverages that require you take a medical exam. They usually take an average 35 days to issue and, if anything shows up on the medical exam that they were not aware of, they will typically change or decline your application.

NOW - There is life insurance coverage available that is very competitive and we can get you covered BEFORE your medical exam. This coverage cannot be rescinded based on the medical exam results. So, the exam is only going to benefit you. Did I also mention that you have six months to take the exam, and you can do it at your convenience? Speed of Life Term is the quickest way to obtain high face amount, low-cost life insurance coverage in the industry today.
